

FACTSHEET

Entrepreneurs' Programme: Innovation Connections

Programme status: Open for applications

This service helps promote innovation and collaboration between Australian businesses and the research sector.

What does it offer?

Connects your business to expertise, technology and advice to meet your research and development needs.

Your business can expect:

- Access to a Facilitator at no charge.
- A research needs assessment to identify any knowledge gaps that are preventing growth.
- A tailored report with possible solutions to your problem.
- Referrals to other research and industry programmes.

The Facilitators have:

- Extensive research and industry experience and market knowledge.
- Established relationships with research organisations and business support services.

Your Facilitator will support you by:

- Assessing your research needs and connecting you to the right support.
- Helping you to communicate your research needs with research organisations.
- Facilitating any project plans or commercial arrangements.

To help you progress your research project, you may be able to get a matched funding grant (of up to $50,000) to access research capability.

Who can apply?

For the purposes of the Entrepreneurs' Programme, a business will satisfy the sectoral eligibility criteria where it can demonstrate it:

- is operating in one of the five growth sectors or provides enabling technologies, inputs or services to one of the five growth sectors; or
- is committed to, and has the skills, capability, intellectual property or expertise to operate in, one or more of the five growth sectors in the future.
